

THE CHAIR
'MANILA' BY PAOLA NAVONE

If you invest in one new seat this season, it has to be this one

Say hello to the 'Manila' chair by Milan-based designer Paola Navone for Italian brand Baxter. It has a tubular frame crafted of Manila cane and etched copper, with a seat made from light-resistant Cloister leather-covered rope, tightly laced around the body of the chair. If, like us, you can't get enough of the mixed materials trend (see the apartment by Studiopepe that perfects the look on p70), this is the ultimate purchase (from £4,870, baxter.it).
